If you are coming to the banquet for the full meal or for the dessert option, the 13 year old minimum age limit and dress code still apply.

DRESS CODE: Formal or semi-formal, no low cut, backless or otherwise immodest attire please. Be thoughtful because if you are not dressed appropriately, you may be asked to leave.

BANQUET SEATING AND REQUESTS:

Banquet seating will be assigned "first come first served", so get your payment in early and watch the newsletter or website for details.

If both parties specify each other in the seating request, we will try to honor it. We cannot guarantee you will get your seat request, especially if both parties don't specify each other.

EMCEE INFO

Would you like to emcee the banquet?, We prefer to choose our emcees from the senior class but we are open to having other high-schoolers if no seniors apply. If you are interested in emceeing, please send an e-mail to with "Emcee Request" in the Subject Line. We will probably award these positions in late February or early March.

PERFORMANCE INFORMATION (Deadline April 24, 2020):

We encourage everyone who would like to perform at the Banquet to do so. Both group and individual performances are welcome. The more performers we have the more fun the banquet is! You do not have to be a senior to perform. Any home school student or group of home school students may perform as long as they meet the deadline for sending in the information as described below, the content is deemed appropriate and is adequately described, time slots are available, and they have a prepaid reservation for the Banquet.

Those performing at the Banquet must have a prepaid reservation for the Banquet and will still have to get their proposed performance reviewed & approved.

You must send an E-Mail to Nate Ridgeway at NateRidgeway@yahoo.com, must have "Banquet Performance Details" in the Subject Line, The deadline for submissions is April 24, 2020. Please include all of the following: 1) Theme, 2) Content, 3) Number name and current grade level of all individuals involved, 4) duration of performance and 5) name, e- mail, and phone number of the contact individual for the proposed performance
